CALENDAR

The academic year is comprised of a fall semester, a winter term, a spring semester, and two summer sessions. Note: The winter term began in 1996; and, beginning Fall 2000, the following four terms were added for distributed learning programs: Term 1 (fall), Term 2 (winter) Term 3 (spring), and Term 4 (summer).

ACADEMIC POLICY & PERTINENT INFORMATION

Academic Standing

A student is in good academic standing unless otherwise noted. Notations of academic action (e.g. dismissals), if taken, are posted at the end of each semester. Academic actions are not taken at the end of the summer and winter terms. Academic dismissal standards from 1973 to present are:

- Prior to Fall 1973: Contact the Office of the Registrar.
- Fall 1973 to Spring 1984: Academic dismissal resulted from repeated semesters of academic probation. Academic probation occurred from failure to earn the appropriate number of quality points each semester and/or failure to maintain a cumulative 1.95 grade point average (GPA) upon completion of 45 credit hours.
- Fall 1984 to Spring 2002: Academic dismissal resulted from failure to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA based on the number of semester hours attempted.
- Fall 2002 to Present: Academic dismissal results from failure to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 over the course of two consecutive semesters.

Repeated Courses

- Prior to Fall 1973: The repeated courses are averaged. Exception is made for first semester freshmen, in which case, the latest grade is computed into the GPA.
- Fall 1973 to Summer 1990: Only the highest grade is computed into the GPA.
- Fall 1990 to Present: For undergraduate students first registering at the University in Fall 1990, all grades are averaged except for courses taken within the first 24 credits (in which case, only the highest grade is computed into the GPA).
- Graduate Students: While earlier grades remain on transcript, only latest attempt computed in GPA.
- For additional information on the Repeat Course Policy, consult the undergraduate and graduate catalogs.

Language of Instruction

- All courses are taught using the English language, with the exception of certain language courses.

This square on an original transcript is printed in thermochromic ink. When rubbed or breathed on it will fade and then gradually return to normal.
